Domaine Philippe Bornard

From cult Jura winemaker Phillipe (and Annie) Bornard comes a treatise to delicacy and finesse with the local variety of Ploussard (Poulsard). Bornard produces his wines with fruit from the appellations of Cotes du Jura and Arbois Pupillin, looking to natural fermentation and minimal intervention to elicit the most from his well tended vineyards. There is an inherent prettiness to Bornard's wines, though a great breadth in personality of the individual cuvees.

2009 Philippe Bornard 'Le Garde-Corps' Trousseau AOC Le Garde-corps is a strong wine made from the grape variety, Trousseau [sometimes called Gros Cabernet in Oz]. These vines were planted by Philippe in 1977 so they are 35 years old and thrive in clay soils. Cherries are a dominant flavour here and the characteristic acidity is present.	Arbois Pupillin, Jura, France	$89

Angelo Gaja Barbaresco - Langhe Nebbiolo DOC

Piedmonte, Italy

Angelo Gaja was named 'Decanter Magazine Man of the Year' 1999. His label is now one of the most instantly recognisable in the world. His Barbarescos are modern classics and express the Nebbiolo grape in a way few thought attainable. The single vineyard wines are 95% Nebbiolo and 5% Barbera, with 12 months in barriques and then 12 months in large oak casks.
